THE CHERRY FUND MARKS THE 11TH ANNIVERSARY OF TRANSGENDER DAY OF REMEMBRANCE

Washington, DC (November 20th) The Cherry Fund observes the Transgender Day of Remembrance, a time when the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community remembers people lost to anti-transgender violence over this past year. The Cherry Fund encourages everyone to attend the commemorative events in their area to mark this day. “By observing and alerting people to area events, our hope is raise public awareness about hate crimes against transgender people,” said Paul Marengo, Board Chair of The Cherry Fund.
