Cherry Fund to support Alston House's 1st Annual Awards Reception

Washington, DC (August 19th) - The Cherry Fund announced today its support of the 1st Annual Awards reception for Alston House; DC areas 1st and only housing program for GLBTQ. "With the cut in city funding, we felt it was necessary to support the Alston House since they provide essential services for our community's youth," said Paul Marengo, Board President of The Cherry Fund. "We have a long tradition of support our community's youth and will continue to do with the support of this great event."

The event is schedule to take place on September 9th from 5:30 PM to 8:30 PM at the True Reformer Building located at 1200 U Street NW followed by an After Party at Nellie's Bar also located in the U Street neighborhood at 900 U Street NW beginning at 8:30pm.
